Kelly Bates Has Built Bridges in Our Neighborhoods for 25 Years

Kelly Bates is a mom, lawyer, and nonprofit leader who has dedicated her career to solving our communities' toughest problems.

HOUSING

Kelly fought for rental reforms to make living in Boston more affordable.

EDUCATION

Kelly worked with Mayor Menino to advocate for quality BPS schools.

ECONOMY

Kelly led organizing efforts to successfully keep the libraries open during budget cuts.

Kelly fought for better-paying jobs and benefits during economic recessions.

Now, Kelly is ready to use her experience to fight for affordable housing, world-class public schools, access to mental health and addiction services, and a swift economic recovery from the COVID crisis—one that works for all of us.
