She was born and raised right here in Chinatown and Bridgeport, and she chose to raise her own kids here. That's why Nicole is dedicated to keeping our neighborhoods safe.

When she took office as our new alderman, Nicole worked quickly to make the 11th Ward safer by:

- ★ Increasing the budget for the Chicago Police Department by millions of dollars
- ★ Adding close to $20 million in new funding for more officers
- ★ Supporting a $61.5 million increase in community-based violence prevention programs
