JARED GOLDEN'S Bipartisan Leadership Creates Jobs and Delivers for Maine

Jared Golden works with anyone who has a good idea to help Maine.

As co-chair of the bipartisan For Country Caucus of veterans, Jared worked with Sen. Susan Collins to get the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs to build an in-patient facility for struggling veterans in Maine, so that veterans won't have to travel out of state to get the help they need.

After authoring and passing a $200 million relief program to help loggers and truckers overcome COVID-19 economic losses, Jared worked across the aisle to get the bipartisan infrastructure package—the largest in five decades—passed.

As you can see on the map, Jared is creating jobs, supporting workers and small businesses, and moving Maine forward.
