

AS A TRAUMA SURGEON,
Dr. Brian Williams sees what guns do to children.

AS A DAD,
the fight to end gun violence is personal.

Dr. Williams is running for Congress to save lives by:

- ✓ Passing universal background checks
- ✓ Reinstating the assault weapons ban
- ✓ Implementing national red flag laws
- ✓ Ending immunity for gun manufacturers
- ✓ Raising the minimum age to purchase a firearm to 21
- ✓ Standing up to the gun lobby to protect our kids

Dr. Brian Williams is a trauma surgeon and a father who all too often has to tell parents they'll never again see their child alive because of gun violence—while worrying about his own daughter's safety.

In the Air Force, he trained in weapons of war and knows they have no place in our communities.

That's why Dr. Williams went to Washington to help Democratic leaders in Congress craft the first major gun safety law to pass in nearly 30 years.
